

HELVETIA HOUSE SCHOOL – STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1) The School

a) Our Aims: The aims of the school are to provide a well-rounded education for children between the ages of 4 and 11 based on Christian values and to prepare children for entrance to secondary schools in Jersey. The school aims to strike a balance between academic and practical work, physical education, moral, cultural and spiritual development and the pursuit of enrichment activities. The school is committed to high standards of teaching and care and welcomes parental contact. The school's environment encourages pupils to participate in work and enrichment activities with enthusiasm and commitment and to behave with courtesy, tolerance and understanding, respecting the needs of others.

b) Your Role as Parents: We see the education of your child as a partnership between the school and parents. You are expected to give your support and encouragement to the aims of the school and to uphold and promote its good name; to continue your child's education at home and to ensure your child maintains appropriate standards of attendance, punctuality, behaviour, diligence, language, discipline and dress.

2) Pupil Care and Discipline

a) Supervision: The School will provide supervision by staff from 8.15am until the end of the normal school day, 3.00pm for Pre-prep, Form I and Form II and 3.15pm for Years 3-6. The school cannot accept responsibility for pupils who arrive outside the school gate before 8.15am, and all pupils must be collected at the end of their normal school day, unless by special arrangement with the school or if they attend an after-school club.

b) Illness: Children should not be brought to school when sick. If a pupil becomes ill during the day the school will telephone you to request that arrangements are made for your daughter.

c) Parents' Authority: While children are at school, and during school trips, staff will be entitled to take, in good faith, all decisions that in their reasonable opinion safeguard and promote the pupil's welfare. Parents expressly consent to such physical contact as may be lawful, appropriate and proper for teaching to provide comfort to a pupil in distress or to maintain safety and good order, or in connection with the pupil's health. Parents are required to leave emergency contact numbers with the school, but should the school be unable to contact parents at the appropriate time, after reasonable endeavour, then parents expressly delegate authority to the Headmistress or her most senior available staff member, to give consent to emergency medical treatment, including blood transfusions, general anaesthetic and operations, if deemed necessary for the pupil's welfare.

d) Data Protection: Information you provide will be processed for educational purposes. To ensure confidentiality and privacy, all processing will be carried out under the requirements of the GDPR and Data protection (Jersey) Law 2018 (DPJL). Information may occasionally be disclosed and used outside Helvetia House School where it is to be in the pupils' best interests. Your daughter's name and image may also be included in school and other publications where this is considered not to be against her interests. Parents who object to this course of action MUST inform the school in writing. The school will not add children's names to photographs on the website.

e) School Trips: From time-to-time children take part in school trips using coaches in which each child will have their own seat with seatbelts. Occasionally, depending on numbers, children are transported in staff cars or in the cars of parents helping with the trip. Parents who object to the above forms of transport MUST inform the school in writing.

f) The School Rules: Classroom charters are displayed in each classroom in the school and discussed with the pupils regularly during the year. School rules (a copy at the end of this document) are reminded of in assemblies.

g) Conduct and Attendance: The School attaches importance to courtesy, integrity, manners and good discipline. The pupil is expected to take a full part in the activities of the school, to attend punctually on each school day, to work hard, to be well behaved and to comply with the school rules about the wearing of uniform. All pupils will receive health education appropriate to age in accordance with the curriculum.

h) The Pupil's Health: The Headmistress may at any time require a medical opinion or certificate as to the pupil's general health. Parents must inform the Headmistress in writing if the pupil has any known medical condition, health problem or allergy or has been in contact with infectious diseases. Parents must also notify the school, in writing, and if necessary, with a doctor's certificate, of their child's inability to take part in games or sporting activity. Pupils may never declare themselves 'off games' without proper adult confirmation.

i) Conduct of the School: It is a condition of remaining at the school that parents and the pupil accept the school regime and the rules as to appearance and dress and the rules of school discipline that apply. Children are expected to use ICT appropriately.

j) Bullying: The school enforces a sensitive and caring counter-bullying policy. The staff investigate every case of unhappiness and distress and monitor unthinking and anti-social behaviours. The school may institute counselling in consultation with the parents involved.

3) Admission to School, Payment of Fees and Registration:

a) Places will be offered to children subject to availability and will be confirmed in writing by the Headmistress.

b) Liability to pay fees is the joint and several obligations of each person who has signed the entry application form or guaranteed payment of fees in respect of the child named on such form whether as principal, agent or trustee and/or every person or body having legal or de facto responsibility for the said child. Such person or body shall be in virtue of such payment be deemed to have accepted the school's terms and conditions.

c) Items Covered: Fees cover the normal curriculum, together with books and some stationery. Various trips and visits are arranged and where required will be separately invoiced and must be paid as an extra. Swimming is an extra cost as well as after school clubs.

d) Registration Fee: £50.00

e) Payment of fees and extras: Fees must be paid in full on or before the first day of the term except where advantage is taken of the school's standing order scheme, or any other arrangement agreed with the school. The school reserves the right to charge interest on all overdue fees. The school may exclude a pupil where fees remain outstanding more than 30 days after the start of term, and the pupil will be deemed to have been withdrawn if fees are not paid in full within 30 days of exclusion. The school has an obligation to inform any other school to which you propose to send your daughter of any outstanding fees. Parents having trouble in paying fees owing to unforeseen circumstances are urged to discuss their situation with the Headmistress at an early stage.

f) Non-Refundability: Fees will not be refunded or waived for absence through sickness; or if a term is shortened or a vacation extended; or for any other cause except in the sole discretion of the Headmistress.

g) Cheques: Cheques should be drawn on a bank within the central Channel Islands or within the United Kingdom and will not be considered as payment until cleared.

h) Withdrawal from School: A full term's notice must be given before a pupil is withdrawn from the school or the term's fees in lieu will be due and payable. This provision also applies where a pupil is deemed to be withdrawn owing to non-payment of fees.

4) Removal, Suspension and Expulsion of a Pupil

a) Removal at the Request of the School: Parents may be advised to transfer their child to an alternative school because the style and demands of Helvetia House School are not suited to her best interests, affecting confidence, progress and happiness. Parents may be required, during or at the end of term, to remove their child, without refund of fees, temporarily or permanently from the school if, after consultation with parents, the Headmistress is of the opinion that the conduct or progress of the pupil has been unsatisfactory, or if the pupil, in the judgement of the Headmistress, is unwilling or unable to profit from the educational opportunities and in any such case removal is considered by the Headmistress to be warranted. In the event of removal from the school, fees in lieu of notice will not be charged but all outstanding items will be payable in full.

b) Suspension and Expulsion: A pupil may be suspended, or in serious cases expelled, at any time if the Headmistress is reasonably satisfied that the pupil's conduct (whether on or off school premises or in or out of term time) has been prejudicial to good order or school discipline, or to the reputation of the school, or in breach of the school rules. There will be no refund of fees following expulsion (and all unpaid fees must be paid; but fees in lieu of notice will not be charged. Discretion of Headmistress: The decision to exclude, suspend or require removal or expel a pupil and the manner and form of any announcement will be made by the Headmistress.

d) Access: A pupil who has been withdrawn, excluded, suspended, removed or expelled from the school has no right to enter school premises without the written permission of the Headmistress.

e) Parents may be required by the Headmistress at any time to remove their child from the school without refund of fees if in her opinion the parents, or either of them, the guardian or other person having responsibility for the child has acted unreasonably with regard to the school, its staff or pupils or generally in a manner which the Headmistress considers detrimental to the well-being, reputation or general administration of the school.

5) Family involvement

a) Family breakdown: In the interests of the child the Headmistress should be informed of a family breakdown or of family difficulties at an early stage. Parents are also asked to notify the school of any incident or situation at home, however seemingly trivial, that might affect their child's happiness or behaviour at school.

b) Address/Residence during Term Time: The Headmistress must be notified in writing of any change of address or contact numbers. The Headmistress must be notified in writing immediately if a pupil will be residing other than with a person who has parental responsibility.

c) Absence of Parents: When both parents will be absent from the pupil's home for a 24-hour period or longer, the school requires, in writing, the name, address and telephone number for the 24-hour contact of the adult to whom parental responsibility has been delegated.

d) Liability and insurance: The school does not, unless negligent, accept responsibility for accidental injury or loss of property. The school undertakes to maintain those insurances that are prescribed by law. All other insurances are the responsibility of parents including insurance of the pupil's personal property whilst at school or on the way to or from school, or on any school sponsored activity away from the school.

e) Pupils Personal Property: Pupils are responsible for the security and safe use of all personal property and are responsible for ensuring that all such property is clearly marked with the owners' name.

f) Concerns/Complaints: The school has a procedure in place, a copy of which is available on request. Parents who have cause for serious concern as to a matter of safety, care or quality of education must inform the school in line with the procedure laid down.

g) Progress Report: The school monitors each pupil's progress and parents will receive a report in writing or at a meeting with the relevant teachers throughout the year.

h) Learning Difficulties: Parents will be notified if it appears that the pupil is falling behind with studies. Teachers are not, however, qualified to make medical diagnosis of conditions such as those commonly referred to as dyslexia or other learning difficulties. If in the opinion of the Headmistress a special education need is revealed which the school is not equipped to deal with, parents will be most strongly advised to make suitable alternative arrangements with professionals alongside her school education, for which the Headmistress will offer her best advice.

6) Secondary Education

a) Entrance to other Schools: It is assumed that, subject to her parents remaining resident in the island, a pupil will stay in the school until entry to secondary school. It is recommended that parents discuss their plans for the secondary education of their children with the Headmistress and keep her informed of any changes to their plans at an early stage. Parents have every right to express their hopes and expectations over the choice of future schooling. The school naturally respects these wishes, but it must retain a prime responsibility to offer professional advice in recommending what it perceives to be in a pupil's best interests.

b) References: In the interests of the pupil the Headmistress may supply information and a reference to any educational institution which you propose your daughter may attend and such reference shall be confidential between the school and such educational institution. The Headmistress will take care to ensure that all information supplied is accurate and any opinion given on a pupil's ability and character is fair. Neither the school or the Headmistress will be liable for any decisions made by the educational institution resulting from opinions reasonably given in or correct statements of fact contained in any reference or report.

7) The school reserves the right to vary these terms and conditions from time to time and such variation will become effective on notification.

SCHOOL RULES

Helvetia House School has rules which are in place for the protection and well-being of its pupils, and which may be varied from time to time.

HOUSE RULES: Pupils are expected to move around the building and grounds in an orderly, quiet fashion showing care and consideration for other people and their possessions.

PROPERTY: Pupils are encouraged to respect the property of others and 'borrowing' is strictly forbidden. Pupils are also encouraged to look after their possessions and to take responsibility for them. Items such as mobile telephones, MP3s, iPods and iPads are not allowed.

OUT OF BOUNDS: For the safety and protection of the pupils, certain areas of school are out of bounds completely unless supervised by a member of staff.

BEHAVIOUR: DRESS: Pupils throughout the school are expected to treat visitors, staff and each other with respect, courtesy and consideration. Pupils are expected to arrive at and leave school in full uniform and to comply with the requirements of the uniform list, a copy of which is given to parents when children join Helvetia House School.

PUNCTUALITY: Pupils are expected to always be punctual.
